

MAYOR CHRIS BOLLWAGE

CITY OF ELIZABETH PRESS RELEASE

CITY OF ELIZABETH COMPANY RECEIVES OSHA AWARD

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Elizabeth, NJ MAY 22, 2008-- Papetti's Hygrade Egg Products, a food producer and distributor located in Elizabeth, will be recognized by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development and OSHA as a SHARP certified worksite.

The Safety and Health Achievement Recognition Program (SHARP) recognizes employers who operate an exemplary safety and health management system. Acceptance into SHARP by OSHA is an achievement of status that will single you out among your business peers as a model for worksite safety and health. Upon receiving SHARP recognition, your worksite will be exempt from programmed inspections during the period that your SHARP certification is valid.

Distribution Center Manager Anthony Galioto has worked at the facility for 15 years. "Our employees have worked very hard to reach this goal, it took 100% involvement and commitment", stated Galioto. Papetti's has been a major employer in Elizabeth for over 75 years with four manufacturing facilities and a Distribution Center. The company is an industry leader for its products and services worldwide.

A ceremony to formally recognize the company is scheduled for 12:00 PM, May 30, at the Papetti's Distribution Center located at 100 Trumbell Street. Several representatives from the Department of Labor and Workforce Development and OSHA will attend including Lenny Katz, Assistant Commissioner and Howard Black, Director. Elizabeth Mayor Chris Bollwage will also attend.