Training - Training is encouraged as a means of improving employee effectiveness and performance through positive and constructive methods. Training and discipline are not mutually exclusive. Certain minor offenses may be handled through targeted training. Supervisors have an affirmative obligation to observe the conduct and appearance of employees and detect those instances wherein corrective action (training) may be necessary. Training includes:

- Verbal Instruction - The supervisor may, depending on the circumstances, provide individual on the spot training where such is indicated.
- Peer Training - The supervisor may assign the employee to another employee with experience in the area where training is indicated.
- In-Service Training - The supervisor may refer the employee to an in-service training program.

Counseling - Counseling is indicated where personal actions or job performance are in conflict with basic police practice and agency written directives. Certain first offenses are sufficiently minor in nature and may be handled by supervisors by documenting the counseling session on a performance notice. Facts to be considered in making these decisions will include, but are not limited to the person's intent, receptivity of the supervisory consulting and their desire to correct the problem. More serious infractions may indicate the need for a stronger response in place of, or in addition to, counseling. There is no right to a hearing for counseling notices except as may exist under applicable collective bargaining agreements. The final disposition notice regarding the corrective action shall be filed in the employee's personnel file.

All training and counseling resulting from a performance issue shall be documented and forwarded through the appropriate chain of command to the Police Director or designee.

4:2 DISCIPLINARY ACTION

4:2.1 Disciplinary Action

Department employees regardless of rank or assignment, shall be subject to disciplinary action, according to the nature or aggravation of the offense, for violating their oath and trust by committing an offense, incapacity, misconduct or disobedience of established department Rules and Regulations punishable under the laws or statutes of the United States, the State of New Jersey, municipal ordinances, or failure, either willfully or through negligence or incompetence to perform the duties of their rank of assignment; or for violation of any written directive or rule or regulations of the Department; or for failure to obey any lawful instruction, order, or command of a superior or supervisor. Disciplinary action in all cases will be decided on the merits of each case.

The disciplinary system established herein shall reflect the overarching emphasis for improving the quality of service being delivered by employees of this Department. Discipline should not engender a strictly negative connotation. The disciplinary process is meant to correct employee actions and conduct that tend to impede the efficient and effective operation of the Department. The proper use of discipline can achieve this objective without realizing a reduction in morale.

4:2.2 Establishing Elements of Violation

Existence of facts establishing a violation of the law, ordinance, or rule is all that is necessary to support any allegation of such as a basis for disciplinary action. Nothing in these rules and regulations prohibits disciplining or charging employees merely because the alleged act or omission does not appear herein, in the Department, or in laws and ordinances within the cognizance of the Department.

4:2.3 Disciplinary Authority, Criteria, and Procedures

All disciplinary authority, criteria, and procedures shall be in accordance with N.J.A.C. 4A:2-2.1 et seq. through 4A:2-3.1 et seq., the laws of the State of New Jersey, applicable case law, collective bargaining agreements, and municipal ordinance. All disciplinary matters will be decided fairly and impartially on the merits of the case considering all mitigating and aggravating factors.

Such actions are taken when an employee's performance deficiency is repeated despite prior corrective action, or when a violation is serious and significant enough to require punitive action. Depending upon the seriousness of the violation, punitive disciplinary action may not always be based upon the progressive disciplinary process. It may be necessary to utilize punitive disciplinary action with the first occurrence of an act or behavior.

All punitive actions applied as a result of discipline shall be documented and forwarded through the appropriate chain of command to the Police Director or designee.

4:3 APPEAL PROCEDURES

Appeals from penalties imposed as a result of discipline or corrective action may be taken in accordance with N.J.A.C. 4A:2-1.1 et seq., the laws of the State of New Jersey, applicable case law, collective bargaining agreements, and municipal ordinance.
